

Roxas Baybay

On magnificent Roxas Baybay, the 15th largest natural Bay in the world and home to over 300 days of sunshine a year, San Antonio Resort Village is truly one of the most seductive locations in the world. Along this 15-mile stretch of coastline north of bustling Roxas Baybay, lies a series of quiet seaside villages.

Credit the nascent awareness of the environment for the sudden popularity of the beach residence as a political statement. Escape and leisure may still be the prime consideration for this type of family home, but increasingly, the structure of the beach house or a real property near the beach has become a personal homage to nature, an acknowledgment of one's cultural identity, and a call for sustainability. San Antonio Resort Village is the premier choice of real-estate investors in the whole Panay Island for families and home-buyers seeking adventure, relaxation, and fun. We've established new traditions for Roxas City vacationers and residents.

Real estate in San Antonio Resort Village of Roxas City is as enviable as anywhere else in the whole Roxas City. If you want to own a home in an area where your family and friends say "wow"; then San Antonio Resort Village is the place to be

The neighborhood is teeming with the snap and vitality of the natural that take advantage of the extensive outdoor living that comes with the territory. The effect is of tremendous calm and peace, the feeling of serenity that comes when one blends seamlessly with the environment and the ocean.

That these beach houses are in Roxas City is no coincidence, the islands being blessed with stretches of pristine beaches, as well as being the manufacturing center for superbly-designed and crafted export furniture that uses indigenous sea-borne materials and being the seafood capital of the country.

Great geography, good design and abundant nature make for the quietly luxurious beach houses and lots in San Antonio Resort Village of Roxas City.

.