Information Gathered by San Antonio Resort Village

Thank you for visiting Sanantonioreortvillage.com, an AncorDevcor and PennAds Inc. site. Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy, we provide this statement explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used at this San Antonio Resort Village site.

User Provided Information: For visitors to our website and registered users, we log standard technical information, such as your IP address. If you choose to register with us, San Antonio Resort Village requires you to provide your email address and birth date. You will also be required to select a user ID and password. In addition, San Antonio Resort Village may optionally ask you to provide your physical address and other demographic information, such as gender, interests or occupation, as well as credit card and billing information for verification purposes or for the purchase of products and services. We may collect other personal information from time to time, such as when you provide feedback or comments, or communicate with others through our systems.

Cookies Information: San Antonio Resort Village uses cookies - a small text file containing a string of alphanumeric characters - to administer its website and provide a more tailored and user-friendly service to you. For example, we may use cookies to count the number of unique computers accessing our website. San Antonio Resort Village uses both session cookies and persistent cookies. A persistent cookie remains after you close your browser. Persistent cookies may be used by your browser on subsequent visits to the site. Persistent cookies can be removed by following your web browser help file directions. A session cookie is temporary and disappears after you close your browser. You can reset your web browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent. However, some features of the San Antonio Resort Village service may not function properly if the ability to accept cookies is disabled.

Log File Information: When you use the San Antonio Resort Village service, our servers automatically record certain information that your web browser sends whenever you visit any website. These server logs may include information such as your web request, Internet Protocol ("IP") address, browser type, browser language, referring / exit pages and URLs, platform type, number of clicks, domain names, landing pages, pages viewed and the order of those pages, the amount of time spent on particular pages, the date and time of your request, content play information, and one or more cookies that may uniquely identify your browser.

Use of Information

If you have registered online to one of our sites, San Antonio Resort Village will not sell, rent, swap or authorize any third party to use your e-mail address without your permission. This also applies to any information that personally identifies you, except as noted immediately below. We do, however, share information about our audience in aggregate form. For example, we may want to know how long the average reader spends on our site, or which pages or features get the most attention.

If you are a print subscriber to San Antonio Resort Village publications and literature and subscribed either by mail, phone or online, we may exchange or rent your name and mailing address (but not your e-mail address) with other reputable companies that offer marketing information or products through direct mail. If you prefer that we do not share this information, you may opt-out.

SanAntonioResortVillage.com may share personal information with San Antonio Resort Village Company for analysis purposes. SanAntonioResortVillage.com will not share personal information about you as an individual to third parties without your consent.

San Antonio Resort Village may perform statistical analyses of subscribers and their subscribing and purchasing patterns for product development purposes and to generally inform advertisers about the nature of our subscriber base.

We may use demographic and preference information to allow advertising on our Web sites to be targeted, in aggregate, to the users for whom they are most pertinent.

We contract with other companies to provide services on our behalf, including credit-card and billing processing, shipping, e-mail distribution, list processing and analytics or promotions management.

Any information you disclose when posting to a message board, along with your message board screen name or ID, becomes public and may be used by San Antonio Resort Village for online and offline promotional or commercial uses in any and all media.
